To —

Chide me not that Mem'ry, ling'ring
On the threshold of the Past—
'Ere her eyes are turn'd forever—
Wouldst a look of parting cast.
Or that Friendship, strong tho' timid,
Dare extend a trembling hand,
'Ere too great become the distance
Where it may a clasp command.
Though the vase, alas, is shattered,
Which the flowers once contained,
Have they withered all and perished,
Not a one to be regained?
Would a breath of true repentance,
And a tear of deep regret—
Though they lie neglected, scattered,
Would it save one blossom yet?

SAID MISS SHOVEL

To Mr. Tonge and Mr. Poker: "What a delightful time we are having with this new coal. It burns so easily and nicely that we don't have to work half as hard as we did with that other coal our Mistress bought. And then with that other coal there used to be so much dirt that I never could feel clean." If you would listen to the conversation between your coal utensils about the last coal you bought, you would feel pretty certain that the proper thing to do would be to come to me for your coal hereafter.

Y. M. C. A. Day.

The local Young Men's Christian Association, now in the third year of its existence, has come to be recognized as an established institution and an indispensable factor for good in the community. Feeling that its many friends, as well as the members, should have an opportunity to know of its progress, its present condition and future outlook, the directors have requested the pastors of the city to devote the second Sunday in October (9th) to the interests of the local work and the cause of young men generally—to which plan they have given their hearty approval and co-operation.

Four or five of the best Association speakers in the State have kindly consented to come and assist in the special meetings of the day. These visiting brethren will speak at the regular morning church services. The Men's Meeting at 3:30 p. m. will probably be addressed by J. A. Stucky, M. D., of Lexington, while at the same hour a special service for women is to be conducted by one of our visitors at the First Presbyterian Church. In the evening all churches will unite in a mass meeting at the First Baptist Church, at which an interesting program will be carried out. The public will be cordially welcomed at these services.

DEATHS.

BRAWNER—At the home of his parents on the West Side, the infant son of Mr. Robert A. Brawner, died on Tuesday.

RIXEN—Again the angel of death has come among us. At the home of his parents, seven miles west of Frankfort, Samuel Rixen fell asleep after the short life of 21 years, 3 months and 4 days. His spirit has gone to the mansions of the blest seemingly before his time. And while we mourn his loss we rejoice to know that he has lived.

Samuel was beloved by all who knew him, was kind, generous and charitable—a true Christian gentleman, having united with the church of Christ at Graefenberg about six years ago. He was born January 10, 1877. The funeral services were held at home September 21, 1898, at 11 a. m., and the remains laid to rest in the family burying ground, a short distance from his mother's door. Bro. J. F. Mahoney spoke words of consolation, assisted by Bro. L. D. Stucker.

After the sermon and singing of some sweet songs, the casket was borne to the grave by Robert Riner, E. W. Armstrong, Edward Cogswell, Chas. Herndon, Harve Herndon and George Hancock. Here the long procession of relatives and friends took the last look at the face of Sammie, who leaves behind a memory that will be long cherished.

To the sorrowing father, mother and beloved brother, James, and sisters, Cinda, Mattie, Anna, Iva, Edna and Ethel, we tender sincere sympathy, but with the comforting assurance that they sorrow not as those without hope. The veil is thin, and the distance short between this and that world where life is eternal.

"Thirteen Men to Make a Jury's Action Binding."

Judge Cantrell administered a severe rebuke to a jury in his court on Wednesday. It appears that the case was such that no damages should have been given, which, however the jury did. The judge indignantly announced to the jury that it took thirteen men to make a jury's action binding, and as they had disregarded the court's instructions, the verdict was set aside and a new trial granted.

Affirmed.

The case of the L. & N. R. v. Chism, on appeal from the Franklin Circuit Court, was affirmed on Tuesday by the Court of Appeals. Chism is a boy who resided near the yards of the railroad, on the West Side, was run over by a switch train and lost a leg. He recovered judgment for $5,500, and it is thus affirmed with damages, making the total sum $8,050. Col. James A. Scott was Chism's lawyer.

Don't forget to Register Tuesday if you wish to vote next month.

A vivacious woman's fan can frequently speak in more eloquent language than any known to man. It can invite or repel, sigh or smile, be meek or haughty, tear a passion to tatters or humbly seek forgiveness.

It can also tell the story of health. A woman who suffers from weakness and disease in a womanly way sits in sorrow and dejection while she gazes at her fan. It is not the fan that is the matter, but the woman. She may be naturally beautiful, naturally attractive, naturally interesting and animated and witty, but the demon of ill-health is gnawing at the very vitals of her womanly nature, and she soon becomes a withered flower in comparison with her brighter and more healthy sisters. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine for women who suffer in this way. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs of the female system, and restores it to its normal condition. It tones and builds up the shattered nerves. It restores the glow of health to the pallid cheek. It gives springiness and trip to the carriage. It makes the eyes sparkle with returning vitality. It imparts animation to the muscles and gestures. The fan that once lay listless and idle in the lap of an invalid again speaks the eloquent language of a healthy, happy woman. Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous merits of this wonderful medicine.

For several years I suffered with prostration of the system," writes Mrs. L. E. DeLong of Los Angeles, California. "I was unable to do anything but sit in bed, and everything else but the right thing. I got worse and worse. My body was emaciated, hands and feet clammy and cold, stomach weak, with great palpitation of the heart. I would suffer with nervousness and cold, and I began to have right-sided neuralgia. I have taken three bottles and now I am very hearty and well and am very happy and satisfied with the result."

Keep your head up and your bowels open. The "Golden Medical Discovery" will put steel in your backbone, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation.

Our little boy was afflicted with rheumatism in his knee and at times unable to put his foot to the floor. We tried in vain, everything we could hear of that we thought would help him. We almost gave up in despair, when some one advised us to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We did so, and the first bottle gave us so much relief that we got a second one, and, to our surprise, it cured him sound and well.—J. T. BAYS, Pastor Christian Church, Neodesha, Kan. For sale at J. Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs, she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at J. W. A citizen of Frankfort says, "the best way to send a letter to Lawrenceburg is to give it to Mr. Haydon, the stage driver, who will put it in the postoffice there and an answer can be received the same day. If it is put in the postoffice here, it goes to Louisville and from there to Lawrenceburg next day—two days on the trip."

Fairs, races and reviews have taken quite a number of our people to Lexington visiting military friends, etc. A certain citizen, well-known in Frankfort, found himself late one night with a very gay party of the U. S. V. meeting the Provost guard, who politely insisted on taking the entire party to the Christian Church, on Main street, (now in charge of Capt. Noel Gaines and used as a guard house), the citizens flatly refused to go. "Very well," said the officer in charge, "I'll hand you over to the first policeman."

This didn't suit the citizen for he did not know Judge Riley, but he did know Capt. Gaines. During the evening festivities one of his soldier friends had found and filled out an asylum blank pertaining — to be absent from — o'clock — to — o'clock, and tucked it in the waistband of the citizen's hat. Remembering this as he was being walked along by the police he said: "Hold on there, officer, I've got a permit."

"Show it to Judge Tiley in the morning and he'll give you ten dollars for it," said one. "Is it a permit for being drunk or for yelling like an Indian?" said the other. "Read it for yourself," said the citizen handing his hat to the officer who no longer read the E. K. L. A. (East Kentucky Lunatic Asylum) than he said to his brother officer, "I thought there was something queer about him. Turn him loose, you can't get no line out of these fellows." So they left the citizen planning himself upon defeating military and civil power by being an escaped lunatic.

The young people of the neighborhood assembled at Mr. Burk's residence Saturday night and gave Miss Josie Burk a surprise party. A most delightful time was had. It was a surprise to all engaged in it, the grounds being lighted with Japanese and Chinese lanterns when the company arrived. The surprise business was equal.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The announcement that Dr. W. C. Roberts, President of Center College, would address the Men's Rally, attracted to the rooms last Sunday a much larger audience than that usually witnessed on a warm Sabbath afternoon. And those who came were by no means disappointed, as this distinguished educator gave a most inspiring address, taking for his theme the Christian virtues mentioned in the Second Epistle of Peter, first chapter, in which he gave a very able exposition.

The great thing about Col. Cody's exhibition is that it is the real thing.

There are no counterfeits, no "make-ups," no "supers," no tinsels. Each and every member of the great aggregation can truthfully and fearlessly say: "When you speak of me, speak of me as I am."

Dr. Cody's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not food but medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 25 cents per package.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. Entered Into Rest.

The sad news was received in this city, on Monday, of the death of Mr. Birkerton Winston, which occurred at his home in Weatherford, Texas, on Monday, Sept. 19. His age was 79 years, having been born April 23, 1819.

He was raised in Kentucky, living the most of his life in Logan and Todd counties. June 1, 1847, he was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth McClure, the oldest sister of Mr. R. K. McClure, of this city. He was educated for the profession of the law, but not finding the business to his taste, he withdrew from it, and at one time had accumulated a handsome competence. Owing to unfortunate investments and security debts he was much reduced in means, though comfortable.

In 1880 he removed to Texas, and was succeeding in his business affairs when he was taken with his last illness June 27. He was well-known to many of our older citizens and held in high esteem.

A man of unwavering integrity and profound piety he impressed all who came within the purview of his influence with the truth and beauty of the religion of our Lord and Savior. For more than 60 years he had been a member and office-bearer in the Baptist Church, and was one of the strong pillars upon whom his various pastors were wont to lean for support and loving counsel.

God gave him a loving and happy family—four sons and three daughters—two sons served their time here and entered into the rest beyond before him.

As the evening sun was sinking beyond the western hills, his soul, which was filled with the joy of a true believer, planned its flight to the true home with hands, and his body, worn by suffering, sunk gently into the last sleep.

His trust was sure and well founded and he had no doubts or fears as to his spiritual affairs.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, September 20, from the First Baptist Church of Weatherford, and mourning friends and loved ones bore this patriarch in Israel to his final resting place.

To the desolate and bereft wife and sorrowing sons and daughters left behind the sympathy of many hearts in this city go out.

Quiet and inobtrusive; firm, just and true; loyal to his God and church; his place will be hard to fill in both church and community. Earth is indeed poorer, but heaven richer in the passage of this noble Christian to his reward.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than any other cough medicine combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Col. Cody's connection with the United States Army covered a continuous period of 15 years, and a desultory one of an equal period; every year of which added to its appreciation of his invaluable services from Guide to Chief of Scouts—and to the admiration and esteem in which general and private equally share.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin diseases and especially piles there is one reliable remedy, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's don't accept counterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Tyler & Hemphill.

There is even more difference between the savage Sioux warriors with the only Wild West exhibition and the ordinary reservation Indian than between the free and kingly lion of Mt. Atlas and his captive brother, cowering in a menagerie cage.

Truth weans well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Tyler & Hemphill.

Called.

Rev. T. Bronson Ray, well-known in this city, has received and accepted a call to the Immanuel Baptist Church, Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Ray is a talented and genial preacher, and we wish him every success in his new work. He graduated at the Louisville Seminary last year. His wife was Miss Maude Waits, formerly of this city.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject is narrated by himself as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. These physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 25 cents a bottle at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

TO AID THE SOLDIERS.

Northwestern Road Issues a Humane Order as to Them.

Volunteers on Trains Must Be Treated With All Consideration.

ROAD KIND TO SOLDIERS.

NORTHWESTERN ISSUES ORDERS.

A humane order has just been issued by the Chicago & Northwestern R'y.

Impressed with the pitiable condition of a majority of the returning soldiers, General Manager Whitman of this road has determined that none of the boys in blue who may come into contact with his company shall suffer for lack of attention.

The Northwestern system covers five or six States, which furnished a large proportion of the volunteers, and in order that the boys may be treated kindly on their way home, whether discharged or on furlough, Mr. Whitman has issued special instructions to the every agent and conductor on the entire system to give special care and attention to returning soldiers en route from camps to their homes while upon the trains or at the stations of the Northwestern.

The employees are instructed to be diligent to ascertain if any of the soldiers are in need of food, and more particularly if they are sick and require medical attention, and if any such are found he is to be attended to at the expense of the company, if necessary. It will not be necessary for the soldier to be in uniform to get the advantage of the road's hospitality, for if he can show the proper papers of discharge or furlough, he will receive the same consideration.

"We cannot do enough for the returning soldiers," said General Superintendent Sanborn, in speaking of the order. "The boys went down there and faced death in a hundred different ways, and those who escaped are returning home debilitated and worn out. They did this for what? Not for money; it is not in their nature to resign himself to death for a money consideration. They did it for the love of country."

Other roads probably may follow the Northwestern humane move.—The Chicago Chronicle.
